F., to remove its Fort street switch, with a claim that its switch is rightly placed under its franchise and in accordance with plans approved by the Superintendent of Public Works. The suit was brought to compel the company to cease using the switch between Beretania and Hotel and remove it from the street, also for $5,000 damags for alleged loss to the property of the lodge, by reason of the presence of switch which brings car tracks so close to the curbstone of the lodge building. F. W. Milvierton, as autorney for Desky, attempted to file a protest before the sale, but Booth and his attorneys refused to receive it. He read it bfore the sale. Another protest was made by H. L. Marx in behalf of a To Messrs, C. W. Booth and W. E. Fisher, and to all whom it may con-

to the curbstone of the leage building.
The company denies that it has laid the tracks without legal authority and says that under the terms of its franthe Pacific Heights property at auc-tion, under an attempted foreclosure of chise it has a right to lay tracks on Fort street. It also denies that it put down the switch in a hurry one Saturday night and Sunday, in order to avoid an injunction which the lodge was after to stop the work.
